FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Avon Board of Education Announces Appointment of David Kimball to Principal at Avon Middle School

The Avon Board of Education and Central Administration of the Avon Public Schools are pleased to announce the appointment of David Kimball as Principal at Avon Middle School. This appointment follows a comprehensive search conducted by a thirteen member search committee.

Mr. Kimball has been an Assistant Principal for the last five years, the most recent at Lyman Hall High School, in Wallingford, CT. He participated in the NEASC Steering Committee, served as point person for Title XI, liaison for Open Choice, liaison to CTE, and coordinator for the Connecticut Technical Education Assessments. Prior to his administrative position, Mr. Kimball was an English teacher where he implemented the first blended learning course in the State of Connecticut using PLATO in addition to serving as English Department Chair.

During his tenure in Wallingford, David served on many district committees including: District Data Team, Global Awareness Committee, District Leadership Capacity Team, English Management Team, Standards Based Grading Leadership Team, District Attendance Committee, Mathematics Management Team, and the Science Management Team.

Mr. Kimball earned a sixth Year Diploma in Educational Leadership from Southern Connecticut State University (SCSU) in 2009, a M.S. English and Secondary Education at SCSU in 2007 and a B.A. in English at Albertus Magnus College in 2003.

Mr. Kimball is excited to begin his career as Principal at Avon Middle School where he plans to engage students in high quality educational opportunities and provide the staff and faculty with strong leadership, guidance, and collaboration.
