AVON LIONS TO HOLD SEPTEMBER CARNIVAL WITH FIREWORKS

(Avon, Conn.) -- The Avon Lions Club will sponsor a hometown carnival on Friday, September 22 through Sunday, September 24. Friday night will feature fireworks at 9 pm. The event will be held across from Thompson Brook School, at 99 Thompson Road in Avon.

The carnival will include 13 thrilling rides along with fun games and delicious carnival fare like cotton candy, snow cones, fried dough and candy apples. In addition, eight food trucks and a mobile pub have committed to the event. Trucks include Lane's BBQ, New London Shaking Crab, Milkcraft ice cream, Betzy's Puerto Rican food, the Farmington Polo Club's mobile eatery, Soulfully Vegan, Sweets n' Eats sausages and more.

Local school children have created artwork about being part of the community, and local organizations are volunteering to make the event happen. If you or your organization would like to contribute time or funds to this community building event, contact Heidi Zacchera at hzacchera@aol.com or call 860-558-3773.

Carnival Hours:

Friday, Sept. 22 from 6:00 PM - 10:00 PM

Saturday, Sept. 23 from 3:00 PM - 10:00 PM

Sunday, Sept. 24 from 12:00 PM - 5:00 PM
