Senior Center Coordinator's Message

Happy July! I hope everyone is enjoying the summer, getting together with others and spending time outside!

Annual Rotary of Avon/Canton Picnic at the Avon Senior Center this year. Details in the newsletter.

July is Fragile X Month- we celebrate this because of our volunteer, Jodi Selinger who has Fragile X. Information included on Page 3 of our newsletter. Please thank Jodi (& Dayna) for volunteering for Lunch on Tuesdays & Thursdays.

On Sunday, June 4, I attended Boy Scout Troop 274 Eagle Scout Court of Honor in recognition of Jack Pavlakis. He received his Eagle Scout Honor for his efforts on behalf of and for the Avon Senior Center. He made the wooden table and benches in our back courtyard, planted hostas, organized a card and game drive all while going to Avon High School (Senior Year), playing football, helping family and friends and being a Scout! We thank him and wish him well.

Please make sure to RSVP for programs. Have a wonderful July 4th Holiday! Stay safe and well.

Take care,
Jennifer Bennett, LMSW, CDP

What's better than spending some time with music and friends? Experience an inspiring concert at Tanglewood, which is the summer home of the Boston Symphony Orchestra and the Boston Pops for over 75 years.

Enjoy a music filled afternoon as Andris Nelsons conduct the Boston Symphony Orchestra, featuring noted American Cellist Yo-Yo Ma. Today they will be playing Julia Adolphe, Makeshift Castle, co-commissioned by the BSO and Gewandhausorchester; Cello Concerto No. 1 by Dmitri Shostakovich, and Petrushka by Igor Stravinsky.

Before the show, enjoy lunch on the lawn at Gateways Inn. Built in 1912, Gateways Inn has become an established landmark in historic downtown Lenox, Massachusetts. With its rich history steeped in Gilded Age grandeur, the property has served the Lenox community in several dynamic ways, currently as a leading Berkshires inn and restaurant. We will enjoy a classic soup and sandwich combo of: Heirloom Tomato Gazpacho, Tuna Niçoise Sandwich with Yellowfin Tuna. For dessert, a refreshing Raspberry & Lemon Sorbet served with Iced Tea, Lemonade, or water.
