Senior Center Coordinator's Message

Happy February! This is a great month to come to the Senior Center and check out new programs, classes, activities, exercise, groups and lunches. It's good to stay involved, occupied, engaged and participate with your fellow senior center members. We always like to see you!

This month we celebrate Valentine's Day— we remember those we love and remember to be kind to one another. We also celebrate Black History. Let's remember to appreciate everyone, no matter what our differences may be, because in those differences, we might find we have a lot more in common with each other.

Please look at the bulletin board for flyers of our interns groups. Kayla & Kaileen have to run groups for their social work education and classes and would love for you to join them. They need to practice their group work skills.

The Senior Center and Community Room are looking beautiful and exquisite with the new paint! Come and see for yourself how much bigger, brighter and fancier the room looks.

Deeds Not Words: 100 Years of the Vote for Women series continues. Please check the newsletter and bulletin board for programs. Avon Historical Society, Avon Free Public Library & Avon Senior Center are pleased to be collaborating on this year-long series.

Avon Senior Center will be running some evidence-based programs in the coming months: Chronic Disease Self Management Pain class and AMP— Aging Mastery Program. Please look for the flyers and be sure to sign up.

Thank you for attending the Senior Center. We have a great time. We look forward to seeing you!

Respectfully Yours,
Jennifer Bennett, LMSW, CDP

“Paleoindian Presentation”

The Avon Historical Society, in partnership with the Town of Avon and the Avon Free Public Library, is pleased to invite the public to attend the first public presentation of the recently uncovered Brian D. Jones Paleoindian Site on Saturday, February 15, 2020 (Snow Date – Saturday February 29th). Members of the team from Archaeological and Historical Services (AHS) of Storrs, CT, Senior Archaeologists David Leslie and Sarah Sportman, will present the site’s background and their team’s preliminary findings, along with an understanding of those findings within the broader context of the Paleoindian period. The presentation will feature visual aids including drone photographs of the site and photographs of the artifacts. No artifacts will be available for viewing at this time. According to radiocarbon dating, the Brian D. Jones Site is the oldest human occupation site that has been found to date in Southern New England. According to AHS, there is no comparative site in the region. In July 2019, the Town, the Federal Highway Administration, the Connecticut State Historic Preservation Office, the CTDOT, the Mashantucket Pequot Tribal Nation, the Mohegan Tribe, and the Office of the Connecticut State Archaeologist entered into a Memorandum of Agreement regarding the discovery and the eventual housing and display of the artifacts, as well as the creation of educational exhibits for a variety of audiences.

From Seneca Falls to the 19th Amendment: Songs of the Woman Suffrage Movement. Music presented by Rick Spencer and Dawn Indermuhle. The struggle for woman suffrage was an important and hard-fought step toward gender equality. Music was one of the significant tools used in the crusade for a woman's right to vote. Songs were composed to advance (and to oppose) the agenda that culminated in the 1920 ratification of the 19th Amendment to the Constitution. This program presents some of the most engaging and interesting songs of the movement, with historical commentary, in commemoration of the approaching centennial of a woman's right to vote. Please note that due to the 72 year struggle for woman suffrage, (1848-1920) this program runs 70 minutes. (snow date: Friday, February 28, 2020, 2:00 pm).

Wednesday February 26, 2020 at 6:30 p.m. at the Library

Meet Isabella Beecher Hooker: one of Connecticut's suffragettes. Tempest-Tossed is the first full biography of the passionate, fascinating youngest daughter of the "Fabulous Beecher" family—one of America's most high-powered families of the nineteenth century. Older sister Harriet Beecher Stowe was the author of Uncle Tom's Cabin. Brother Henry Ward Beecher was one of America's most influential ministers, and sister Catherine Beecher wrote pivotal works on women's rights and educational reform. And then there was Isabella Beecher Hooker—"a curiously modern nineteenth-century figure." She was a leader in the suffrage movement, and a mover and shaker in Hartford's storied Nook Farm neighborhood and salon. But there is more to the story—to Isabella's character—than that. Susan Campbell is a Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist, a widely read Hartford Courant columnist, and the author of three books. She's worked across the media landscape. Her work has been recognized among numerous organizations.

Phenomenal Woman

Pretty women wonder where my secret lies.
I'm not cute or built to suit a fashion model's size
But when I start to tell them,
They think I'm telling lies.
I say,
It's in the reach of my arms
The span of my hips.
The stride of my step.
The curl of my lips.
I'm a woman
Phenomenally.
Phenomenal woman,
That's me.

We look forward to seeing you at all events. This year we are celebrating our 50th anniversary in October and we are busy planning a special celebration to mark this occasion.

We hope that you are staying safe during the frigid winter weather. Driving in the winter means changes in the way you drive. Snow, sleet and ice can lead to hazardous road conditions. So please slow down and keep your focus on what you are doing. Cut back on any distractions. Please be careful when traveling and walking during the next couple of months. Sometimes we don't realize how slippery the pavement is. Use good footwear to protect yourself from slipping, sliding and falling. Avoid injuries while enjoying the winter weather.

We want to remind you that in the event there is inclement weather and the Avon schools are closed the senior center is closed and there will be no program offered that day. If Avon schools are on a delayed opening schedule the senior center is open and programs scheduled will be offered without interruption.
