Senior Center Coordinator's Message

Happy Senior Center Month! I'm so excited to celebrate with you! I hope you all enjoyed your summer and we look forward to a fantastic month!

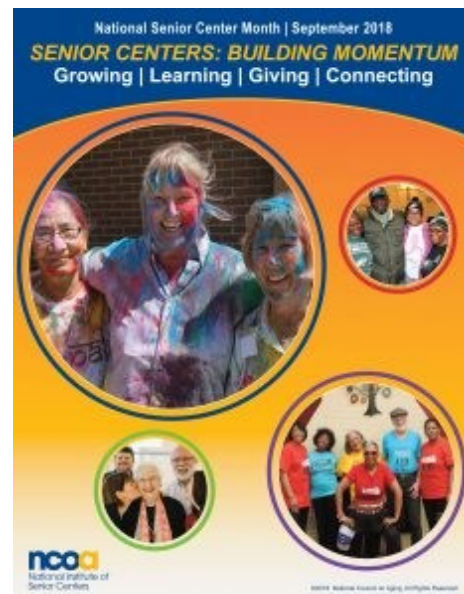

We have some great programs this month. We have several fabulous Lunch & Learn programs! You do not want to miss out! We have a "Senior Center Month Celebration" where we will paint inspirational rocks and enjoy delicious ice cream! We have a new program "Pocket Billiards" and you definitely want to check this out! We continue with our Examining Freedom of the Press Lecture Series, a partnership between the Avon Free Public Library, Avon Historical Society and the Avon Senior Center. We have a Trip Slideshow program for 2 upcoming trips that we're taking in 2019! We continue with our "Knitting with Gratitude" program where we donate knitted blankets to those in need. Live Well Diabetes Self-Management workshop is free and open to the public. And we have our daily and weekly programs! Wow, we do so much at the Avon Senior Center!

All of this excitement, success, exhilaration, triumph and fun would not be possible without all of you that attend the senior center! We thank you, appreciate you and celebrate each and every one of you!

We would love to make some new friends, so please feel free to invite your neighbors, family and friends.

See you at the Avon Senior Center!!

Respectfully Submitted,
Jennifer Bennett, LMSW

SEPTEMBER EVENTS 2018

Monday, September 17, 2018, 6:30-8:00 p.m.

"Social Media, the Press and Us"

The everyday reality of media use around the globe is changing rapidly due to the proliferation of smart phones, tablets and multiple screens that allow access to and immediate dissemination of news. The US President prefers to communicate via twitter feed while labeling mainstream journalism as "fake news"; Facebook data has been hacked to access personal information about users' likes and dislikes. Many teenagers communicate rather via text messages than in person, let alone speak on the phone. This talk will focus on the way social media is not only shaping our human relationships in a digital age but also our understanding of the world around us. How does user-generated content allow for new participatory energies to develop while also deeply affecting cultural identities and developing. Lecture and discussion led by Dr. Karen Ritzenhoff, CCSU Communication Dept. Part of the Examining Freedom of the Press Lecture Series, a partnership between the Avon Free Public Library, Avon Historical Society and the Avon Senior Center. Held at the Avon Free Public Library. No registration required.

"Thinking Thursdays"

Thursday, September 20, 6:30-8:30 p.m.

"All the President's Men", 1976, Rated PG – It's been over 40 years since the release of this movie, but Robert Redford and Dustin Hoffman still sizzle as two young reporters investigating the Watergate break-in that ultimately led to the resignation of President Richard M. Nixon. If ever there was a movie that underscored the importance of a free press in American democracy, this is it. Film discussion will be led by Bob Kagan, Professor of Communication at CCSU and the U of H. "Examining Freedom of the Press" series designed in partnership by the Avon Free Public Library, Avon Historical Society, and Avon Senior Center, with support from Avon High School. Held at the Avon Free Public Library. No registration required.

Message from the Board of Directors . . .

We hope you had a wonderful summer and created many happy memories with your family and friends. The way the summer months fly by is remarkable and it happens every year. If you have a favorite summer memory, please share it with us. You may find it here on this page in a future edition.

We have many exciting programs scheduled for the fall and hope you enjoy them. If you have any topic suggestion, please let us know.

On September 17th we will have John Banker returning with Oktoberfest. This is a popular celebration and fills up quickly. Please be sure to make your reservations early to save your spot. Reservations are required for this event. Cut-off date for making reservations is the Thursday before the event. Please call Katie Ruez at (860-673-9883) and leave a message for her if she doesn't answer. Your cooperation is greatly appreciated.

On September 24th we are privileged to have Adele Mary Caruso presenting "Balance is Key". Adele is well known local speaker and has presented her talks at many local libraries.

Happy Birthday to the following Members:

September 1st – Margaret Zikowitz

September 4th – Sue Floridio

September 6th – Elizabeth Wolff

September 17th – Russell Tuller

September 21st – Barbara Schicker

We are looking for volunteers to help set up, clean up or assist in the kitchen. Also, if you'd like to become more involved or assist in any other way, please let us know. Please see one of the board members.

If you have any questions, please see a board member...we look forward to a new exciting season.
