PRESS RELEASE

TASTE ITALY AT A GRAND ITALIAN FESTIVAL

Avon's Italian American club, "Prince Thomas of Savoy" (PTS), is having their first "town-wide" Italian festival called La Festa Italiana. The day-long event from 9 to 3 will be on October 9th at the club's facilities at 32 Old Farms Rd. Avon.

The festival will showcase Italian culture featuring; foods, wines, music, games (bocce), and tours of the magnificent clubhouse with its original frescos of various regions of Italy.

Food booths will include fried dough, cannolis, Italian cookies, Italian coffee/cappuccino with Sambuca, and Italian ice. Favorite local restaurants will also have food booths.

Live Italian music will enliven the festivities.

Demonstrations: including, limoncello/orangecello demos., pasta making, ricotta cheese making, and kid's activities including face painting, will be going on all day.

All parking will be off premises. Transportation by shuttle bus is available from the back parking lot at the Marriott Residence Inn & the Walmart commuter lot to and from the PTS clubhouse.

Check the club's website www.ptsavoy.com or Facebook for more information and a map showing the shuttle bus routes.

The festival is open to all so come down, relax, have fun, enjoy some "old-world" charm, and satisfy your curiosity about the Italian club. No admission fees.

A great day will be had by all!
